

An aerial photograph of a city skyline at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm orange glow over the scene. Several tall skyscrapers are visible, including a prominent one with a pointed top. In the foreground, a river flows through the city, reflecting the sky and buildings. A bridge crosses the river, and a green park area is visible on the right side.

Virginia: One of the most diverse vacation destinations in the USA

The most difficult decision on your trip to Virginia might be selecting from the many tantalizing options at your fingertips. History with a modern twist, breathtaking natural beauty, shopping at brand-name outlets and boutiques, soaking up the sun along miles of pristine coastline, savoring local produce and sipping award-winning wines are just the beginning of what you'll find in this storied state.

Virginia is For Lovers

This is the first, largest and most prosperous colony on the books in the USA; it's also, as the local saying goes, "for lovers." History and romance go hand in hand here, where rolling hills and sunny beaches give way to charming towns and boardwalks along with the polished manors of presidents and memorial sites. The Historic Triangle, for example, is home to Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in the USA, Colonial Williamsburg, and Yorktown, where the American Revolutionary War ended.

What's more romantic than enjoying a glass of wine and noshing on some of the state's excellent oysters from the Virginia Oyster Trail while watching the sunset on a picnic in Shenandoah National Park? Home to more than 300 wineries, Virginia's wine heritage is well-earned. The colonists were the first to make it here. Not surprisingly, farmers markets and a vibrant farm-to-table scene also have sprung up everywhere, making for unbeatable dining and nightlife.

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Welcome to Philadelphia, which 17th-century Englishman and province founder William Penn envisioned as an easily navigable urban utopia. Today, view over 4,000 outdoor murals that provide an incredible art trail while exploring historic places in this walkable city. Plan your own route using Mural Arts Philadelphia's mobile app; include stops at three of the most famous murals – "Legends," "Philadelphia Muses" and "Common Threads." Don't forget to pose for a photo at the LOVE statue before stopping for lunch at Reading Terminal Market, a culinary experience that is the perfect place to order a Philadelphia cheesesteak. Visiting Independence National Historic Park is a must to see over 20 historical sites that include the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall. "Rocky" movie fans won't want to miss the statue of Rocky Balboa; re-enact his run up the steps to the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Accommodation:

Amish Country, Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, TO GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

📍 📍 📍 📍 📍 📍 2 hours and 15 minutes / 241 km

Depart Philadelphia, looking out for horse-drawn buggies sharing the road on the drive through Amish Country, a popular tourist destination. Stop at the Ephrata Cloister, a 1700s religious community noted for its art and architecture; the National Historic Landmark is now a museum on the Pennsylvania Trail of History. Head to Lancaster in Pennsylvania Dutch Country. Visit an Amish farm, take a buggy ride or enjoy a hearty Amish meal. Leaving Lancaster, cross the Susquehanna River through York, called the "White Rose City," and continue to Gettysburg, famous for its pivotal role in the American Civil War in the 1860s. At Gettysburg National Military Park, begin your battlefield visit at the park's Museum and Visitor Center. A memorial at the cemetery marks the spot where U.S. President Abraham Lincoln delivered his famed Gettysburg Address in 1863. This evening, enjoy downtown Gettysburg's boutiques and restaurants.

Accommodation: Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

Little Round Top,
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA, TO SHEPHERDSTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA

● ● ● ● ● 1 hour and 18 minutes / 58 km

Head south into Maryland and visit South Mountain State Battlefield, the site of the state's first major Civil War battle. Continue to Antietam, considered one of the most pristine and well-preserved Civil War battlefields. Walk on hiking trails or take the 13.5-kilometer driving tour as an easier way to explore the battlefield. The Union Army's victories over the Confederates at South Mountain and Antietam led President Lincoln to issue the Emancipation Proclamation, which declared that people held as slaves in Confederate states should be freed. Continue your journey to West Virginia, the only state born out of the Civil War, and its oldest city, Shepherdstown, founded in 1762. Explore nearby Harpers Ferry National Historical Park, home to 19th-century buildings, a Civil War museum and John Brown's Fort, a key site in an 1859 abolitionist raid. At The Point, where the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers meet, take in gorgeous views across the states of West Virginia, Maryland and Virginia.

Accommodation: Shepherdstown, West Virginia

SHEPHERDSTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA, TO MORGANTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA

● ● ● ● ● ● ● 3 hours and 18 minutes / 253 km

Leave Shepherdstown and follow the Washington Heritage Trail scenic byway to Berkeley Springs. In the center of town, Berkeley Springs State Park features George Washington's Bathtub with a warm water spring bubbling up through a rock tub. As a teenager, the USA's future first president bathed there in the 1700s using scooped-out pools lined with sand and rocks. The stone tub there today replicates those early conditions, and the warm mineral waters are still prized. The springs continue to be a site for spa treatments. Sample the water from two public fountains under the Gentlemen's Spring House and at a series of open pools along the west wall of the park. Just west of Berkeley Springs, stop at Panorama Overlook for spectacular views of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland. Nearby is the hamlet of Great Cacapon. Here, join West Virginia Route 9, one of the most scenic roads in the state, as it winds along and over the Cacapon River for nearly 32 kilometers from Great Cacapon to Paw Paw. On the way west, stop about 20 kilometers before reaching Morgantown. At Coopers Rock State Forest, the views of the Allegheny Mountains are astounding. Tonight, explore the vibrant culinary scene in Morgantown.

Accommodation: Morgantown, West Virginia

MORGANTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA, TO BLACKWATER FALLS STATE PARK, WEST VIRGINIA

● ● ● ● ● 1 hour and 40 minutes / 118km

Follow the Old Route 7 Byway south along Decker's Creek. Watch the gentle creek transform into a rapid torrent as it passes through the narrow gorge. Stop at Arthurdale, the USA's first New Deal Community, founded in 1933 and a favored project of Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the USA's 32nd president. Now a National Historic District, Arthurdale features original homesteads. Continue south and drive Cheat River Byway for spectacular views of the rugged Cheat Canyon, known for its fabulous whitewater rafting. Stops along the way will include the Buckhorn Run Waterfall and the Tray Run Viaduct, one of the first iron railroad bridges in the USA. For the next few days, your home base will be Blackwater Falls State Park in the heart of the Allegheny Mountains.
